

California Raisins UK

Trade Press Release

August 2017

28 DAYS TO GO FOR THE ULTIMATE EXTRAVAGANZA

California Raisins are urging independent bakers, wholesalers and food manufacturers across both Yorkshire and UK-wide to submit their entries to the California Raisins Scone Category, for the opportunity to win 100kg of California Raisins and a certificate to display in their business.

Although late entries will be accepted until 10.00am on the day of the competition we urge you to get your entry forms in now.

For the second time, the high profile contest forms part of The Craft Bakers and Butchers Extravaganza, which takes place on Sunday, October 8, in the Yorkshire Event Centre at the Great Yorkshire Showground in Harrogate.

All entries are open to all bakers and butchers within retail, wholesale and manufacturing sectors.

Entrants unable to attend in person have the facility to deliver their products to the Great Yorkshire Showground, Railway Road, Harrogate HG2 8NZ, by 5pm on Saturday, October 7. All products should be clearly labelled and include details of the entrant.

Entry is free and there's an online registration facility on the event website - www.craftbakersandbutcherextravaganza.co.uk

Media are welcome to attend, please contact Dee Cassey for any further details on this event or the competition entries; dee@comeintothegarden.co.uk

THINK RAISINS. THINK CALIFORNIA

California Raisins Administrative Committee

c/o The Garden Marketing & PR, Bourne End Business Park, Cores End Road, Bourne End, Buckinghamshire, SL8 5AS Tel: 01628 535 755 email: info@ukraisins.com